

Program Title: Warisan

In line with the exhibition that focuses on the 50s-70s Malaya/Malaysia, we have devised a music appreciation program of lagu-lagu rakyat consisting well known folk songs of Malaya, and included some popular tunes of P. Ramlee, Saloma and Sheila Majid. The music is tastefully arranged for voice, choral and instrumental, retaining the flavours of the original tune, yet timeless and refreshing.

Song List:

Acappella Welcome	Pak Ketipang Ketipung
Acappella	Potong Padi
Keyboard + Solo Voice	Ala Canggung
Acappella	Wang Chun Feng
Keyboard + Men's Trio	Anak Ayam
Keyboard + Voices	Anak Itik
Keyboard + Solo Voice	Suriram
Keyboard + Solo Voice	Mak Inang
Instrumental	Getaran Jiwa (P Ramlee)
Instrumental	Violin: Bengawan (Saloma)
Keyboard + Solo Voice	Tunggu Sekejap (P Ramlee)
Instrumental	Violin: Legenda (Sheila Majid)
Acappella Finale	Jong Jong Inai

The total duration of the program is approximately 40 – 45 minutes.

Cultural Value of the program:

1. It promotes the a renewed and refreshing take on the traditional music, which may be more conducive to the younger generation of today.
2. The concert aims to inspire greater appreciation of music, promote healthy music activities and cultivate community music making.
3. It promotes the involvement of Classical Trained musicians in practicing and performing in a genre that may be less common.
4. The program will be of good publicity value for ILHAM Gallery as a wholesome entity that promotes and keeps Aseana arts (including musical heritage) lively and relevant.
5. The repertoire is huge and varied, therefore this program has the potential to be repeated periodically with different selections, thereby creating a series program.

Musicians Lineup:

The KL Madrigal Singers, is the soloist ensemble segment from within the wider VerSeS Music Ensembles collective that was formed in 2002. The Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) based soloist ensemble is dedicated to performing and promote a variety of solo classical vocal and choral ensemble music, with special interest in the Madrigals of Dowland, Morley, Monteverdi and Gesualdo. Also an active small opera company, the collective actively performs opera arias and small scale opera scenes, in addition to arts songs of Germany, France, Italy, China, Spain and Britain. While VerSeS is active in commercial activities by providing high quality live classical music to corporate and private clients alike, the social responsibility component of the collective has been strong and continuously running alongside the business activities. Notable projects include the “A Journey Through The Ages - AJTTA” series concerts for local charity body, “The Singing Balcony” non-profit outreach program, the “Iris & Cornflower” series that focuses on French and German Repertoire, the “Tiny Concerts” series that engages audience in appreciation of foreign language classical vocal and choral repertoire.

Musical Director and Vocal Master: Scott Woo (<https://scottwoo.home.blog>)

Adv. Cert. (Singing), Trinity College London

Scott is a seasoned musician that has taken on multiple roles in the classical music landscape, including lay clerk, choirmaster, musical director, talent agent and concert producer, both locally and abroad in Australia and Germany. He was on the panel for Sarawak Patriotic Choir Competition in 2004 and as Chief Judge in 2005. A skillful choral master, his choirs often scored top 3 in competitions. Upon returning to Malaysia in 2017, Scott started “The Singing Balcony” initiative where he strives to bring together talented local musicians and promote different portfolios of classical choral and vocal music to the Malaysian public in a very accessible manner. In 2018, Scott coached the Malaysian team on Poulenc and Bach Motets (BWV 227, 229 & 230) for concerts in Kuala Lumpur (in collaboration with Wicked Music People). The team later went on to become Festival Opening Guest for the 2019 Macau Vocal Festival. In 2019, Scott pioneered the deconstructed songcycle conversational format recital of Schumann’s Dichterliebe, where first time listeners of lieder are given a conducive environment to understand the meaning of the poetry and enjoy the music in an accessible manner. In the same year, he has also conducted Bite-Sized Zauberfloete, a child-friendly version of Mozart’s Die Zauberfloete, in collaboration with Ann Perreau’s Music School. Children and parents, many whom are first time listeners were presented with a condensed version of the opera making it an effective introduction to new listeners of the opera.
